THE GREAT OUTDOORS | From the top park in the nation to nationally acclaimed mountain biking trails and fishing spots and everything in between, we have something for every outdoor enthusiast. USA BMX is building their national headquarters and Olympic Training Facility in Green Country – with Mayes County BMX hosting national races on its brand new track. Our newest attraction boasts a national caliber white water rafting park opening in 2022.

THE ARTS AND ENTERTAINMENT | Opera, ballet, world class museums, street art and live music. This region has it all. Cherokee Nations' Will Rogers Downs even features horse racing and the Tulsa Opera is the 12th oldest opera house in the nation.

SPORTS | BMXing in Mayes County, to high school and college football games, to the world-renowned Tulsa Tough biking competition to even our own NBA Team, the OKC Thunder, sports fans will have no problem finding something to participate in, or just cheer on the sidelines.

EDUCATION | Education is on the rise with several encouraging trends, including increased teacher pay. Other bright spots include universal pre-K access, with Oklahoma ranked third in the country. In Mayes County, STEM education is highly supported and privately funded with state-of-the-art STEM labs in every high school.

HOUSING | With lake living, suburban living or urban living options, our housing market is one of the most exciting in the nation. As housing starts are up, and cost of living is down, we can offer any lifestyle you are looking for.

INDUSTRIES | Our region's economy continues to diversify in exciting ways, however cornerstone industries remain in aviation and aerospace, banking and energy. We are also known for entrepreneurialism. From our earliest days, we have been pioneers and that pioneering spirit continues today through our small business networks and our workforce programs represented at MidAmerica.
